The ERM Roundtable Summits provide an opportunity for us to learn from each other. We are very fortunate that chief risk officers and others that are leading the enterprise risk management process are willing to come and share very practical, tactical ways of how their finding value through the enterprise risk management process. The value that is obtained from that is tremendous. We use it in our classrooms, and we find that participants take it back home and find bits and pieces that can work well in their organizations. We also hear from participants a real benefit in just networking with other ERM professionals, particularly in multiple industries. And just the value of getting to know one another, sharing ideas over breaks, lunch is a tremendous opportunity for them as well. So we hope that you will join us.
